Join Cruises For Causes and the South Carolina African American Heritage Commission on the African American History and Genealogy Cruise from July 3 to July 8 aboard the Carnival Ecstasy.

Workshops are offered on this cruise for education and enlightenment. On the days at sea, workshops will be offered each day. You will have your choice in attending workshops on the following subjects: Civil Rights Era, Reconstruction, Civil War, Genealogy, Recording Family History and Planning A Family Reunion. Anita Singleton-Prather, designated as The First Lady of Gullah and known as Aunt Pearlie Sue, will entertain with her famed Gullah stories. See photo above.

Non-refundable deposits are $200 per person and are due on or before March 5. Cruisers will then be placed on a monthly rotating payment plan. You will be billed 30 days after you pay your initial deposit and subsequent payments. Payments in the latter part of the billing cycle will be manually processed as everyone will have different ending balances. You will receive an invoice for any remaining balances. For every booking, you will receive a FREE ticket to the National Museum of African-American History and Culture for March 26, 2017.
